FEMA FUNERAL ASSISTANCE

If you lost a loved one, after January 20, 2020, due to COVID-19, you may apply to the Federal Emergency Management Agency for help with funeral expenses.

Who is eligible?

- US citizen (includes US territories and District of Columbia)
- Non-citizen national
- Qualified alien

The deceased does not need to have been a permanent legal, ("green card") US resident. Those who qualify include: refugees; those with asylum status; people with pending deportation; immigrants with conditional entry (e.g., parole into the US for at least one year for humanitarian purposes); Cuban-Haitian entrants; and people with pending or approved immigration petitions for relief from battery or extreme cruelty by a family member.

How Do I Apply?

- No online applications will be accepted
- Call the COVID-19 Funeral Assistance Line 844.684.6333 (or TTY 800.462.7585), Monday to Friday: 9 am to 9 pm.
- Multilingual services available

What documentation is required?

The applicant responsible for funeral expenses needs to:

- Provide an official death certificate indicating the death was due to COVID-19
- Submit funeral expense documents
- Disclose proof of funds received from other sources

COVID-19 Vaccinations: Colmar Manor Town Hall 3701 Lawrence Street

For pre-registration, call 301.277.4920 and give your preferred language for the call back. Or go to colmarmanor.org.

This event is for area municipalities: Colmar Manor, Cottage City, Bladensburg, Edmonston, Mount Rainier, Brentwood, North Brentwood, and others who reside elsewhere but work in one of the municipalities.

Governor Hogan has opened vaccine eligibility to food service and other providers, and anyone over the age of 16 with a local or close by residence or work location.

Your vaccination is important!
