Sis's Tavern Grand Re-Opening

Mayor Robinson: "Enjoyed a wonderful time at Sis's Tavern grand Re-opening in North Brentwood with a Fun collective!!"

Attendees included Mt Rainier Mayor Celina Benitez, Cottage City Commission Chair Wanda Wheatley, and our Town's CM Jacqueline Morales and Code Officer Janie Cuffie.

CM Jacqueline Morales & Officials at National Black Caucus Conference & Gala

Council Member Morales, and Town Clerk Patricia Page, along with PG County Executive Angela Alsobrooks and State's Attorney Aisha Braveboy, attended The Congressional Black Caucus Foundation's 53rd Annual Legislative Conference and the Phoenix Awards Dinner, at Walter E. Washington Convention Center, on September 14, 2024, in DC.

President Joe Biden and Vice President Kamala Harris spoke at the awards presentation, urging the Caucus to push its vision, ahead of the Presidential Election. Vice President Harris called on the CBC to leverage its history as "the conscience of the Congress" to guide the future of the country.

As he was honored with the CBC Lifetime Achievement award, President Biden noted the CBC's actions have bolstered his administration's achievements: "With the CBC, we went big and we went bold and we are better off today than we were four years ago. I'm being very sincere when I say a big reason why is because Congress boasts the highest number of Black members in American history." Watch Biden's and Harris's speeches: youtube.com/watch?v=UjySf9Uhprg.

In addition, Maryland Governor Wes Moore, the CBC Foundation's Annual Legislative Conference Honorary Co-Chairs' Award recipient said: "I am standing before you as probably the most improbable governor in America. I say that as somebody who had handcuffs on my wrists by the time I was 11, as someone who joined the army when I was 17, and as someone who went to a two-year college, but is now standing in front of you as the 63rd governor of my state and the first Black governor in the history of the state of Maryland. It is an exciting time for our state. It's an exciting time for our country and I'm so grateful to be your partner in the work."

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month, an annual global campaign to raise awareness and to fund research for causes, treatment and cure.

Most people diagnosed with breast cancer have no symptoms, so be vigilant about detection. If you notice breast/armpit changes, such as a new lump, swelling or thickening of part of the breast, or irritation, dimpling, redness or flaking of skin, consult your doctor. Building awareness is an effective way to decrease breast cancer-related deaths. Be aware of your family history, get frequent mammograms per your doctor's recommendations, and ask for genetic testing (to check for BRCA1/BRCA2 gene mutations) for early diagnosis and life-saving treatment. The risk of developing breast cancer can be reduced through education and prevention, e.g.: quitting smoking and avoiding other carcinogens, healthy diet and exercise habits, taking medications to treat precancerous conditions or prevent the onset of certain cancers, and limiting postmenopausal hormone therapy. For more info visit: cancer.org/cancer/breast-cancer.

Who is most at risk? The median age of breast cancer diagnosis is 62; but, some are younger than 45. Overall, the average risk of a woman in the US developing breast cancer in her lifetime is about 13%, or 1 in 8. In recent years, incidences have increased by 0.6% per year, with a steeper rise in women younger than 50 (1.0%). The good news: breast cancer death rates have decreased 42% since 1989, as a result of early detection, through screening and increased awareness, as well as better treatments. However, the decline has slowed slightly in recent years.

Breast cancer varies in racial and ethnic groups:

- The median age at diagnosis is younger for Black women (60 years old) vs. White women (64 years).
- Black women have the highest breast cancer death rate, partly from a higher risk of triple-negative breast cancer, the most of any racial/ethnic group.
- White, Asian and Pacific Islander women are more often diagnosed with localized cancer than Black/Hispanic/American Indian/Alaska Native women.

For resources, e.g., financial help during treatment, go to komen.org. Remember, men get breast cancer, too. For more info about detection and treatments, go to: cancer.org/cancer/types/breast-cancer-in-men.

Breast Cancer Awareness Month Events

Sources such as Susan G. Komen (komen.org) and Living beyond Breast Cancer (lbbc.org/community/events) list national events, including the 2024 Butterfly Ball in Philadelphia this November.

In the DC area, National Harbor has annual Pinkout events and specials in October: nationalharbor.com/events/annual-events/breast-cancer-awareness-month. As well, Ralph Lauren Center for Cancer Prevention at Georgetown University is sponsoring events, e.g.: at Giant Foods on Oct 10 (12-2 pm) at 1535 Alabama Ave SE, 20032. Center staff will provide materials about health and cancer prevention, and guide individuals requiring assistance navigating the screening process.

In PG, County Executive Angela Alsobrooks wants to ensure residents know about county programs, support and resources. Prince George's County has one of the highest mortality rates of breast cancer in the state of continued on page six

Maryland. Alsobrooks wants to change that: “Challenges in education, awareness, clinical testing, early detection, and screenings are holding us back from being a County

National Fire Prevention Week: Oct 8—14

National Fire Prevention Week’s 2024 theme, “Cooking Safety Starts with YOU,” emphasizes the importance of safe cooking habits to prevent home fires.

Why Focus on Cooking Safety? According to the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA), cooking is the leading cause of home fires and related injuries in the US. Most of these fires start when people leave cooking unattended or when they handle cooking equipment unsafely.

Key Fire Prevention Tips

- Never leave cooking unattended. Turn off the stove if you leave the kitchen.
- Keep flammable objects away. Ensure a safe distance between cooking appliances and items like towels, oven mitts, sprays, or paper.
- Use timers. Set timers to remind you of cooking times, especially when using the oven or stovetop.
- Have an extinguisher. Keep a fire extinguisher nearby in case of emergencies; make sure everyone in the household knows how to use it.
- Stop grease fires. Cover flames with a metal lid; turn off burner. Don’t pour water on grease fires!
- Install smoke alarms. Put smoke detectors on each level of your home; test monthly.
- Create a fire escape plan. Plan and practice a fire escape route with your family. Make sure everyone knows how to exit the house quickly in an emergency, and where to meet outside.

- Check electrical cords. Inspect appliances and cords for damage; replace if frayed or damaged.

Let's Keep Our Sidewalks Clear...

Keeping sidewalks clear is crucial for maintaining safe and accessible public spaces for pedestrians. In residential and commercial areas, keep sidewalks obstruction-free to ensure everyone can walk safely, including those with mobility challenges, parents with strollers, and children.

Why It's Important to Keep Sidewalks Clear:

Safety. Obstructed sidewalks can force pedestrians to walk on the street, increasing the risk of accidents with cars. Clear sidewalks provide a safer route for everyone.

Accessibility. An obstructed sidewalk can be a significant barrier for people with disabilities, particularly those using wheelchairs, scooters, or walkers.

Cleanliness and aesthetics. Removing waste bins/clutter from sidewalks maintains a clean, attractive environment and helps prevent littering or illegal dumping around bins.

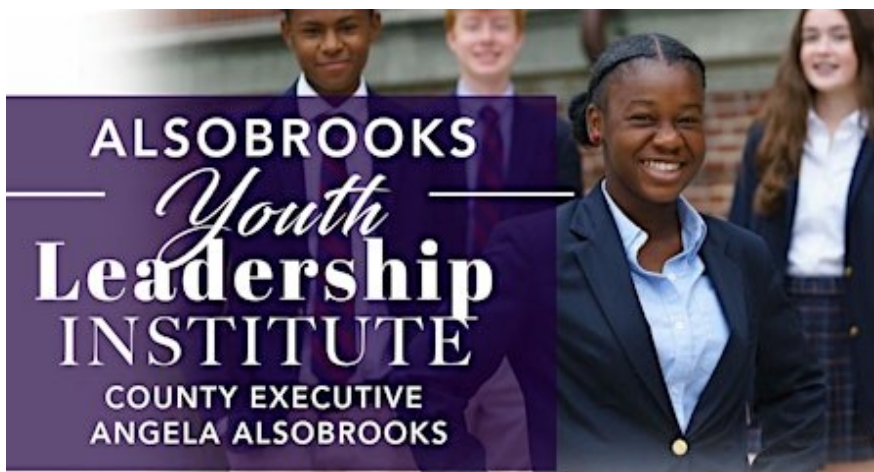

Keeping Sidewalks Clear of Waste Bins:

Timely removal. Waste bins should only be on sidewalks at pickup times and removed after collection.

Proper placement. Place waste bins as close to the curb as possible, without blocking the pedestrian path. Ensure there's enough space for people to pass by safely.

Report obstructions. If you notice consistent violations or hazardous obstructions, report it to me at the Town Office.

From the Christmas in April Team

Christmas in April is a one-day event dedicated to repairing homes for those who, due to age, disability, or financial hardship, are unable to perform the work. The 2025 Christmas in April workday is scheduled for Saturday, April 26, 2025. We anticipate completing our 3000th home during the 2025 program.

Our program relies on the generous contributions of time and money, from skilled and unskilled volunteers, who devote many hours to help make a difference in our community. While our volunteers can assist with a wide range of minor home repairs, please note we're unable to replace roofs, repair or replace concrete, or install new windows.

However, we can perform minor repairs on existing roofs. If you require a new roof, structural repairs, or any projects that cannot be completed within a single day, we suggest contacting the Department of Housing, at 301.883.5570, for help.

To be considered for this program, the home must be owned and occupied by the homeowner, who must be elderly and/or disabled. While there are no strict income requirements, we prioritize applicants who lack the resources to make necessary repairs themselves.

Please keep in mind repairs will be limited to the last Saturday in April, and while we strive to meet all needs, we cannot guarantee every requested repair will be completed. Typical repairs include interior and exterior painting, minor carpentry, plumbing and electrical work, replacing non-functional appliances, and general clean-up and yard work.

Applications must be submitted to our office by November 1, 2024. If you are applying on behalf of someone, or making a referral, please be sure to discuss it with the homeowner beforehand and gather as much of the required info as possible. Please include your name, your relationship to the homeowner, and your contact numbers.

As part of the application process, a Christmas in April volunteer will conduct an onsite visit to ensure requested repairs fall within the program's scope. You can expect a call in mid-November to arrange this visit. We anticipate final selections by early January. Applicants will be notified in writing, regardless of whether they've been selected for the 2025 program.

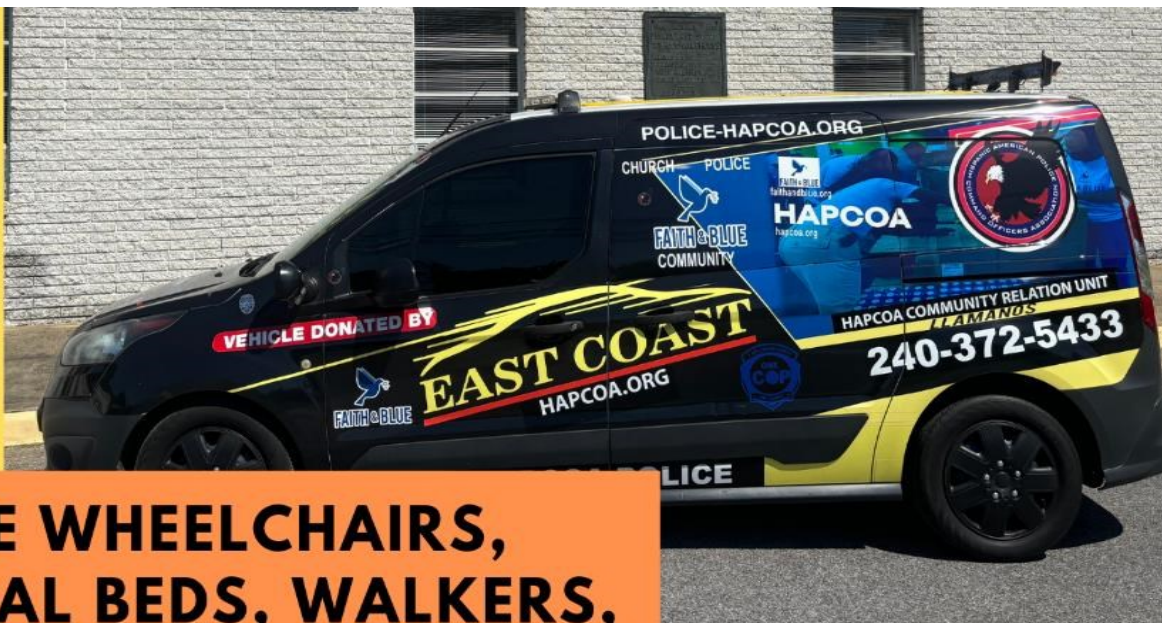

If you, or someone you know, would like to be considered for home repairs, or if you'd like to volunteer, please go to christmasinaprilpg.org/forms. There, you can submit a form online, or download, complete it and mail it to: Christmas in April, Prince George's County, 7915 Malcolm Road, Suite 102, Clinton, MD 20735. If you have any questions about the program, contact 301.868.0937.
